

Aurum Capital Advises NG Companies in its Investment from Rockwood Equity Partners, Establishes Platform in Underground Damage Prevention

January 31, 2023

DENVER–(BUSINESS WIRE)–Aurum Capital Connect, LLC

(Aurum) today announces that its client, Longmont, CO-based NG Companies (“NG”), the provider of hydro-excavation (hydrovac), damage prevention, reclamation, and remediation services largely to the construction, utilities, and energy sectors, has partnered with Denver, CO-based Rockwood Equity Partners (“Rockwood”). Aurum, helmed by Steve Donelson and Will Armstrong, served NG as its exclusive investment bank and M&A advisor on the transaction. The acquisition of NG augments Rockwood’s existing portfolio as a platform in the utility services space.

Highlights:

- Rockwood plans to make additional investments to enhance output and operations as NG continues to scale.
- The NG team consists of 100+ technicians, tradesmen, engineers, administrative and project specialists.
- Rockwood aims to expand upon the strong national reach laid by the NG team from its locations in CO, MO, TX, ID, NC, and FL.

Rockwood Equity Partners is a premier lower middle market private equity firm, currently investing from its fourth fund. Founded in 1999, Rockwood has offices in

Cleveland, Denver, and New York, and partners with privately-owned businesses and corporate carve-outs in regulated sectors including aerospace & defense and healthcare, as well as industrial technologies and specialized B2B. www.rockwoodequity.com

NG has striven to provide the highest quality services for mid-sized and large customers in construction, utilities, and energy since its founding by Camron Lente in 2009.

“The decision to ultimately join forces with Rockwood was made simpler under Steve’s and Will’s guidance”, Lente said. “They were with us every day, every step of the way in this complex process, and as we look to the future, we are excited by the obvious synergies and growth opportunities this partnership presents.”

About Aurum Capital Connect, LLC.

Aurum Capital Connect (“Aurum”) is an investment bank and strategic advisory firm with offices in Denver, Colorado, Dallas, Texas, and Portland, Oregon. Aurum specializes in Mergers & Acquisitions, strategic advisory, and capital formation services for middle market enterprises in a breadth of industries. Aurum works closely with management teams to develop and execute strategy, open doors to capital, and create meaningful exits. For more information on Aurum Capital and how we serve middle market companies, please visit www.aurumcapconnect.com.